Roberts Asks Additional Funds For Maintenance of Buildings

President Cockrum Heads Group To Urge Bill

Strategy committee members will present the bill for erection of new buildings on the campus to the Ways and Means Committee of the Assembly on Wednesday. This statement was issued today by Will Smith, member of that committee.

The entire committee will make the trip to appear before the Assembly. They will present a detailed account of the buildings to be erected if the $2,800,000 appropriation is voted by the State.

Ray Williamson, Assemblyman from San Francisco, has promised a strong fight for the measure. "This bill will pass," declared Williamson. "We are determined to see that it gets first consideration among the college appropriation bills."

Ed Cockrum, student body president, will head the committee. The committee is composed of Cockrum, Howard Demeke, Will Smith, and Bud Decker. The committee will go to Sacramento well equipped to carry a strong appeal to the legislators. Records for the past ten years will be utilized to strengthen the position of the college in its appeal for building funds.

Franciscan Staff Largest in History

Approximately fifty persons will comprise the editorial staff of the 1937 Franciscan, according to Bob Barry, editor of the book. According to him, this number will make the staff the largest in years, in order to have a more uniform representation of the student body.

Editorial assistants are: Elsa Magnus, Bob Links, Leon Minear, Howard Grubeck, Ed Smith, Maxine Duffield, Evelyn Harris, Marie Hirsch, Bill Buchan, Eunice Catlett, Bud Decker, Mary Louise Godfrey, Helen Eichelberger, Angelina Brovero, Babette Lau, Dave Schutz, Doris MacDonald, Ray Buckley, Roy Laugesen, Dolores Poetee, Bill Rose, Tim Guiny, Sonia Elig, Howard Demeke, Charles Mauer, Ernest Miguel, Al Cartwright, Erwin Schoff, Mary Tavalara, Louise Valtrino, Shirley Canning, Cliff Worth, Marice Dechent, and Steve Ebert.

Printing of the book is being done by the Osborne Printing Company of San Francisco, which also prints the Golden Gater. Contract for the engraving was awarded to the Oakland National Company. The latter firm will provide gravure work in the opening section of the book, which is an outstanding feature offered few schools in the Pacific Coast, as this is the only press of its kind west of the Mississippi. Four-color opening section will therefore be in the publication, as well as the gravure work, which resembles steel engravings in the fineness of work.

Bill Presented By Fresno State To Aid College

Requests of seven state colleges for additional maintenance funds totalling $434,000.00 were presented by President Thomas of Fresno State College before the Ways and Means committee of the Assembly at a hearing held Wednesday evening, March 17 in Sacramento.

Representing San Francisco State at the meeting were President Alexander C. Roberts and Student Representatives Ed Cockrum, Bud Decker and Howard Demeke.

This college is to receive $71,000.00 of the above amount if the petition is granted which will substantially increase the former maintenance allotment. Additional funds for general running expenses and faculty salaries will be possible.

The other institutions requesting additional money include schools for the blind and deaf and several co-educational schools including a separate budget for U. C.

High Frosh Sponsor Camera Day Wednesday

The High Frosh class will sponsor a camera day on Wednesday, March 24. There will be prizes for the best photograph turned in by a High Freshman and many prizes for the best pictures turned in by the student body at large.

The following are the rules: No high speed lens (use home kodak and camera, regular film); open to every one; the judges' decision will be final. Judges are: Leo C. Nee, Harold Martin, and Bill Ferem.

All entries must be in on or before Wednesday, March 31. The pictures will be judged on the following basis: quality of picture, clearness, general characteristics. All pictures are eligible to appear in the Franciscan. There will be two sections, one for the comic pictures, and one for the serious.

There will be both cash and merchandise prizes, donated by the High Freshman class and the Eastman Kodak Co.

Clubs Participate In College Fair

An extensive and colorful program of activity will form the setting for campus club exhibits and concessions on the night of April 5th at the Inter-collegiate World's Fair, according to word from the various committee chairmen. One of the main features will be the gray coated honor guard for the coming Golden Gate International Exposition, the California Grays.

Will Smith, general chairman, said that the campus clubs and organizations had been very generous in their offers of assistance so far and that reservation of space and ideas had begun to pile up with considerable speed.

State Program Aired Via KYA

Next Friday, State College "Varsity Varieties" will again be on the air. This announcement came after a successful broadcast over Station KYA last week featuring Helen Louise Cox, Harold Jacobs, Ida Beth Caine, Murdock Mansfield, and several other members of the college student body.

The program for last Friday was released to a state-wide network of California stations and was heard in Los Angeles, Fresno, Bakersfield, San Jose and Sacramento.

Bill Buchan, Tim Guiney, and Will Smith, who are managing the program and preparing the script, announced additional auditions for today between 4 and 6 o'clock in Annex A7. Buchan said, "We are particularly on the look out for vocal and dramatic novelties, as these are the most in demand at all radio stations we contact."

Will Smith, Master of Ceremonies, urged all who were interested in radio work to try out, pointing out that there would be frequent changes in program personnel from week to week.

Civic and Educational Leaders Honor Roberts

Leaders in the field of education and state and city officials will honor Dr. Alexander C. Roberts, president of San Francisco State College, at his decennial dinner on April 1, at the Western Women's Club.

The dinner, under the sponsorship of the Alumni Association, Patrons' Association, and faculty and student body of the college, will start at 7 o'clock.

The program following the dinner will include an address by Dr. Dexter, a group of Indian Lyrics sung by Stephen Lehmer accompanied by Miss Eileen McCall, a sketch in which the developments of the college in the ten years that Dr. Roberts has been president will be presented, and a dance by Miss Alice Wilson. Dr. Edna L. Barney will be master of ceremonies.

The lyrics to be sung by Lehmer, who is the leading baritone of the Chamber Opera Singers of San Francisco, were arranged by Dr. N. Lehmer especially for the occasion. They were composed from Indian folk songs by the noted poet. Miss McCall will play the spinete, a rare instrument from Germany, in accompaniment.

Anti-War Movement Sponsored By A. S. U.

Preparing for the third annual student rally against war, the American Student Union, guided by their president, Beatrice McDermott, is working to make this demonstration a success. Eleven o'clock on the morning of April 22 is the time set for this nationwide demonstration.

Mr. Edward Cassidy, A. S. U. sponsor, encourages all persons with a genuine interest in war-prevention to participate in the peace rally.

Music Visitors Dance Tonight; Knuth Leads Opening Concert

Brahms and Wagner Selections Featured By Ensemble

Dr. William E. Knuth, professor of music, led the college symphony orchestra and a chorus of two hundred voices in the opening concert of the Western School Music Conference Convention at the First Congregational Church, last night. An outstanding performance of the Festival Prelude from the Maestersinger by Wagner, and the Requiem by Brahms composed the program for the evening.

The conference will continue until March 24, with Dr. Knuth serving in capacity of local head of arrangements. State will be featured in other parts of the conference, represented by its string quartet and other small ensembles.

High Junior Class Has Dinner Dance

Staging one of the major affairs of the Spring semester program, the High Junior class plans to hold its annual dinner dance at the Hotel Cecil Penthouse on Saturday evening, March 27.

According to those in charge the dinner will start promptly at 7:30 p.m. Joe Rosen and his band will play and seven acts of entertainment will be put on as a floor show. Price is 50c to class members and $1.25 to non-members.

Class members planning to attend must sign the poster in the bookstore by Wednesday, March 24.

Mass Meeting of A.W.S. To Be Held April 1

Revised schedule finds the A. W. S. Mass Meeting slated for the Little Theatre on April 1, between the hours of 11 to 12. The previously scheduled time has been made unavailable because of conflicting classes. The committee has broadcast the request that all girls cooperate by arriving promptly on the designated hour.

According to Committee Chairman Bettie Brown, "The objective of this meeting is to show the men of this college that we, too, can put on successful Mass Meetings."

Phi Lambda Chi Rushes Prospective Members

Harriet White, president of Phi Lambda Chi, announces that the Rush Dinner and social evening will be held at the house tomorrow evening, March 23.

The purpose of the dinner is to acquaint the members of Phi Lambda with women on the campus who are being considered for membership in the sorority.

Members who are planning to attend are urged to sign up on the poster in the main hall of college hall at once.

One Hundred Ten Schools Participate in First Conference

Tonight, starting at 6:30 in the college cafeteria, San Francisco State College Music Federation will play host to over six hundred high school students. The dinner in the Co-op will be followed by a dance in the gymnasium and a party in Annex B12. These two latter affairs will be open to members of the Music Federation as well as to the visitors.

DELEGATES ATTEND

The visiting students represent 110 high schools located throughout the state of California. The majority are situated in the north-central section of the state, however. All of the students are in San Francisco to participate in the Music Educator's Conference, which was officially opened yesterday. A feature of the opening day was the presentation of the Festival Prelude from the Maestersinger, and Brahms' Requiem last night by the Music Department of the college.

The entertainment tonight is being sponsored by the Music Federation, a club of all of the music majors and minors in the college. As special guests, Dr. and Mrs. Alexander C. Roberts, Dr. and Mrs. P. F. Valentine, Dr. and Mrs. John H. Butler, Dean Mary A. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. David J. Cox, have been invited. Members of the student body executive board will also be present to aid in welcoming the guests.

DINNER GIVEN

"Due to the limited capacity of the college cafeteria, it is necessary that we ask members of the Music Federation not to come for dinner," stated Leon Minear, Federation president. "However, all students holding Music Federation membership cards are invited to attend the dance and the party, admission to which will be free of charge," he continued. The dance is scheduled to start at approximately 8:00 p.m. One Music Federation card will admit one couple.

A large committee has been functioning to assist Minear in the arrangements for the evening. Constance James is in charge of the party, assisted by Dorothy Berg, Esther Thompson, Norman Zech, and Paul De Poister, who are also assisting with the dance and dinner arrangements.

Advisory Council Will Skate Tomorrow Eve

The Advisory Council will hold a skating party tomorrow from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. according to Margarite Bellis, chairman. The Golden Gate Skating Rink, Jones and Eddy Streets, will be the scene of the party.

A special rate of 20c per person has been secured for the group by Dawn Wilson, vice chairman. The entire rink will be reserved for members of the Advisory Council and their friends.

More About The C. Y. A. Program

Rebounds on the editorial of March 15 concerning student employment on government funds brings to mind the question of whether or not a student should be assisted through his years of education by the government.

The government of a country is that tangible entity representing the vague thing called "society", and the question resolves itself to this: "Has the student a right to expect of society that it take over the complete financial burden of his education when the prime benefit of that education is to make him a better member of that society?" If our social structure is dependent upon a high degree of intelligence and competency of its individual members, is it not the duty of that structure to provide an entirely free education to the individual as a means of the attainment of these qualifications?"

The idealist will answer by saying that education should be sought solely for its own sake, for the love of knowledge, and the student who most desires that knowledge and is best qualified to receive it will provide for himself a means of procuring his education without help from anyone but himself. This, of course, implies an intellectualist in the true sense of the word, a disciple of the Platonic school. A careful scrutiny of our undergraduate training in America, we believe, will reveal that there is but little food for this type of mind therein. The training for the Bachelor's degree has been so thoroughly commercialized here that the greater part of the students study with one eye on the book and the other on the social and economic benefits of the diploma.

Therefore, with the attitude prevalent that we should become educated solely for the purpose of taking our places in the social and economic world, is it not the duty of society to provide a means for us to become acceptable citizens?

Chamberlin's Tripe

By Bob Chamberlin

At the time this goes into lead we are still wondering what happened to Bluebeard. He went to the Frosh Hop with Eleanor Adams . . . and hasn't been seen since . . . whar be yuh, lad, whar be you?

Some good clean stuff in this colym . . . frinstance . . . Gwen Smith coyly whispered in our good ear that Lee Carruthers took twenty-one showers "on the school" in five days . . . it may not be news . . . but it's clean.

EXECUTIVE BOARD NOTES

March 15, 1937

The nineteenth regular meeting of the Executive Board was called to order by Pres. Cockrum at 7:15 P. M. Roll was called and Miss Lau was noted absent. Mr. Atkinson was late. The minutes were approved with one correction.

No communications were received.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Mr. Hopkins reported on the Executive Board pins. He will have a report on the cost of the new pins at our next meeting.

Mr. Demeke reported that Miss Vance was investigating the matter of a place to keep the club minutes and that he would report further at the next meeting.

Mr. Bill Smith reported on the menu and cost of the Music Department dinner.

Mr. Laugeson reported on the World's Fair stunt that the Board will put on.

Mr. Muldoon reported on the copyrighting of the school song—"Purple & Gold March".

Mr. Carothers submitted a budget report of the Low Soph dance.

Mr. Hopkins will report on the property of the Student Body at our next meeting.

Mr. Ferem submitted an expense account of the Frosh Dance, and he and Mr. Peters received congratulations from the Board on the success of the dance.

Mr. Decker reported on the cost of a case for our trophies.

President Cockrum reported on the progress of the Strategy Committee.

OLD BUSINESS

A motion was made that we do not orchestrate the school song, "The Purple & Gold March". Motion passed.

NEW BUSINESS

A motion was made that we accept the Tumbling Act to represent the Board at the World's Fair. Motion passed. Mr. Laugeson was placed in charge.

Concerning the copyrighting of the school song "Purple & Gold March" a motion was made that we have the song copied by hand by some one in the music department, and then send two copies back to Washington. Motion passed.

A motion was made that we appropriate an additional $1.50 to have two copies of the song "The Golden Tide is Rising" sent back to be copyrighted when the song is finished. Motion passed. Mr. Minear was placed in charge.

Concerning the music department dinner for the convention, as the Student Body is paying for all the delegates to the convention, it was decided that all hosts and hostesses should pay for their own dinners.

A motion was made that we accept the plans for the Low Soph dance. Motion passed.

Mr. Ferem was asked to enter the Executive Board baseball team in the Intramural Soft Ball League.

Mr. Peters brought up the question of splitting the profits on the Freshman dance. After a discussion a motion was made that the Freshman class share the profits on a 50-50 basis. Motion passed.

In order to avoid future complications a motion was made that we set as a policy the basis of a 50-50 sharing of profits or losses on any cooperative dance. The motion was then amended to read that all future cooperative

Moan, Moan, Moan! That's about all you hear from the track and baseball teams. It seems that one Jupiter Pluvius has decided to harass, bedevil, and antagonize our Gater batsmen and scanty-pant men by tearing loose the heavens and air his grief by crying upon good old mother earth. Now to the farmers and botanists this is all well and good, but how are our poor athletes going to earn their blocks when this sort of stuff keeps up? Remedy: have a sit-down strike, seeing that they are quite prevalent nowadays, and maybe Jup will cease his crying.

ABOUT TENNIS

I see where our "Little Caesar" (Ronnie English) is still undefeated in tennis competition. Maybe he's got something there. But definitely. As for the rest of the tennis team, they are progressing along quite rapidly and should soon hit their peak. It's funny, but when we weren't in any tennis league, we won all of our matches with the colleges that are now in the league, and now that we have entered or rather started a league, it seems that we get taken more often than is necessary by these other colleges. That is what I call gratitude.

AMATEUR EDITORS

It comes to me, and not by the way of the grapevine, that some people do not like the way the sport pages are being handled and such. We of the sport staff regret to say that if those individuals who have made this moan will please see Max Williamson, we feel certain that he will be very glad to give you the editor-ships of the three sport pages. Yes he will... MUCH! If you would only see just what we are up against, when our deadlines are and the like, maybe you might make a few, possibly a few, mistakes that we have made in trying to bring to you the sports of State.

WHY NOT?

Comes this fall when the Gater grid-ders don their mole-skins and cleats, it should be possible for one of the radio stations here in the city to broadcast all of our home games. Why shouldn't we have the break that the larger colleges have and get our games on the radio? It is certainly feasible, seeing that most stations are hard up in finding programs to broadcast that they play records. We have a choice spot of all Friday nites when there is no other competition in athletic events of other colleges. Nothing could be better than to bring the city of San Francisco closer to their own college, which they have neglected all these years in the due process of progress. Why not?

Intramural Baseball To Start; Tennis Underway

With the first game of the annual tournament scheduled for tomorrow the intramural baseball league is getting under way. With the intention of making this tournament a greater success than the basketball and football tournaments of last semester, manager Dave Schutz is intending to divide the ten teams entered into two five team leagues, with a three game play-off to decide the winner. The games will be scheduled in a round-robin series, with each team playing every other team in its league. In this year's previous tournaments and in the present tennis tourney, a team plays a game, and if it loses, is eliminated from play. Schutz intends that in this contest that every team will play at least four games.

This year's contest will feature the clash between the Newman Club and the Block "S", who battled to a deadlock in the two game play-off series last year.

In the last tournament, the Newman Club showed power by winning three league games on successive days, losing the first day of the play-off to the Block-men, and winning the second game on the following day. They had an average of .800 for five games. There will be no chance for such a deadlock this year, because of the three game play-off.

TENNIS TOURNEY

The tennis tournament is continuing to hold the attention of several aspiring racketeers on the tennis courts. So far, Gallagher and Kavanaugh have each won three matches, Kavanaugh taking Carson, 9-7, and Gallagher taking Agdeppa, 6-0. In the next round, Carson will meet the winner of the Lindlow-Carrothers match. Gallagher will try to take the victor of the Hammond-Pena match. Also scheduled for this week is the Crary-Saunders and Lebedeff-Delma contests. Bragg will meet the winner of the latter.

Abbey, Gavron Lead Golden Gater Nine

By Bill Rose

Now with the Cal-State game again washed out, Gater batsmen will breathe easier for awhile, the chief source of batting average nightmares being permanently removed. A good case of Bear chucker jitters has now been wholly cured. The Purple wood swingers will still have to meet Watson of San Jose and White of Cal-Aggies, but these boys, good as they are, are not of the same caliber as are Dougherty or Priest, Bear moundsmen.

Don't misinterpret this though. Far be it from this writer to suggest that the Gaters were hesitant about stepping on the diamond with Mighty Cal. Nevertheless Gater batting averages were due for a drop when these two teams met. And don't let anyone tell you that baseball players don't live by their batting average. That is the one topic of conversation when the stars exchange lockerroom pleasantries.

To date out in front of the pack is Doug Crary, Gater third baseman, hitting a fast clip of .555%. However, Crary hasn't been at bat very often, so the leading State hitter actually is Bill "Gabby" Abbey, Freshman catcher. Abbey is driving the ball hard at .478%. Closely following these men are Stone, hitting .416, and Wilkes and Rose, both at .400.

The State hurlers are doing all right by themselves, too, all of them as yet being undefeated. Andy Gavron, veteran right hander, has chalked up three wins for himself, to lead the moundsmen. Ru Stone, a novice on the pitching staff, has registered two victories, and Ken Wilkes, reveling in the St. Ignatius game, managed to haul the game out of the fire to tally his win. Dave Schutz, pitching-manager, ran his string to one straight when he conquered Commerce High.

These records are exclusive of the Sacred Heart game.

Students who do not pay their course fees by Monday, March 29, will be excluded from classes.

State's New Athletic Program Revealed; Decker In Charge

GATERETTE GOSSIP . . .

By FRAN

Nothing like friendly competition—S. F. J. C. girls spent a few hours in our gym Thursday night. It was a mighty fine evening! When thirty J. C. girls get together one might expect war. But everything was sweet, and peaceful harmony. Bouquets to the committees in charge for their splendid work. Those games and relays were certainly a work-out, time out had to be called. Peeking over to the side lines we saw Miss Cundiff laughing her head off. (Here's hoping we get an "A" in her course.) Lindy sure swings a wicked hip when it comes to demonstrating dances. The tumbling team looked so cute in their little green rompers. But wait! You haven't heard the best part of all—we had pie-a-la-mode—uhm—I could go for some now. The evening ended in a rousing game of basketball. Audrey and her tumbler girls gave a hi-fallutin' exhibition for the Jaysee girls.

BADMINTON TOURNEY

Hey! Have you heard W. A. A. is starting a mixed doubles badminton tournament. Ask Babette Lau what her chances are in the handball tournament. Last term's finals are still unfinished. Babs is holding things up by practicing on the sly for the championship.

Committee Tells of New Athletic Details

By Ken Johnson

"If the present bill before the Legislature is passed State will have the finest athletic buildings in the Bay area," states "Bud" Irwin Decker, who represents the athletic department on the strategy committee. Decker, who returned Friday morning with the other members of the committee, delved into the plans for the benefit of Gater readers. "The plans as now arranged call for the erection of a new gymnasium, swimming pool, tennis courts and health center," said Decker. "They will be the last word in modern equipment."

NEW GYM

According to the plans the gymnasium will be erected on the site of the present kindergarten building. It will be a ninety by one hundred and sixty ft. structure extending along Laguna Street to Haight Street. Three large spacious playing floors will be installed on each of the planned three stories with the top floor housing the inter-collegiate floor. Here all the State home basketball games will be played before a 2000 seat capacity stand.

TENNIS AND HANDBALL

Stretching along Laguna Street on the opposite side of the lower play-field and extending down Haight Street for approximately one hundred and eighty feet will be the planned tennis courts, open-air dance pavilion, barbecue pit and campus lawn. At least four courts will be constructed with two handball courts at either end of the proposed layout. The open air dancing pavilion in connection with several barbecue pits is intended for the use of night rallies and meetings.

The newly acquired Roberts Field has not been forgotten. According to Decker the proposed plans include re-turfing of the field and laying out of a new baseball diamond. Bleachers and permanent stands to accommodate 20,000 spectators will be erected as well as new dressing rooms and accommodations for visiting teams.

P. E. OFFICES CHANGED

Included in the bill is the erection of a library on the present woman's gymnasium site. All P. E. and athletic programs for women will be shifted to the new building as will all the men's P. E. classes. All training quarters, dressing rooms, individual exercise rooms, both for varsity teams and P. E. classes will be housed in the new building. Rooms for corrective exercise work and a modern health center for diagnoses and treatment has been planned.

Commenting on the proposed plans, Decker said, "the new gymnasium will be an innovation in its construction. Three floors will be devoted to individual playing courts. Badminton and other recreational games will be included as well as improved conditions for P. E. work. The varsity basketball floor will be one of the largest in Northern California with a seating capacity of 2000.

Frank's Orchestra To Play At Soph Dance

Milton Frank and his ten-piece orchestra will be featured at the Low Sophomore Pre-Easter Dance on Wednesday night in the gymnasium. The affair is open to the student body at the admission price of twenty-five cents.

According to Morley Carrothers, president of the class, specialty numbers will be provided during the intermissions for entertainment. The names of the performers will be kept as a surprise.

Harold Chandler, dance chairman, announces that the decorations will carry out an Easter motif, and that the theme music for the evening will be the well-known "Easter Parade".

Students who do not pay their course fees by Monday, March 29, will be excluded from classes.

Fashion Advice Given At Lecture

"What to wear and how to wear it" was the topic of an illustrated talk sponsored by the Bib 'N' Tucker society last Thursday.

The new trends in spring fashions were pointed out by Miss Janice Street, college consultant at O'Connor Moffatt & Co., on the various models which she brought with her.

Many of the dresses were original designs by Miss Louise Mulligan. Miss Street stressed the fact that women, and especially college girls, should dress to fit their types. The dress is a sort of frame for the personality. The next important thing to consider in dress, is suitability. "High heels should not be worn at school," Miss Street emphatically stated.

IF YOU'RE FEELING SHEEPISH, EWE OUGHT TO TRY AN ANNUAL.

College Theatre Plays Produced By Students

"College Theatre's demonstrations of one-act plays last Thursday and Friday were quite successful," stated Miss Julia C. Casebolt, director of State dramatics. The programs were of the nature of an experiment in the display of the talent of students in the English 126B Play Production classes, being staged entirely by these students under the direction of Miss Casebolt. The Little Theatre of Annex B was jammed to a capacity crowd for both performances.

Tryouts for College Theatre's next play have been announced for Tuesday. All interested in participation are invited to attend. The next play to be staged is "Dulcy", a farce-comedy by George Kaufman. Much competition has been promised for the part of the piano-playing maniac. Although a difficult character, students are literally fighting for the role because of the tremendous possibilities for unusually effective characterization inherent in the part. The role of the Billie Burkish wife is also the center of a contest.

Past and Present Editors To Speak

Presented as the featured speaker of its second journalism instruction meeting, Alpha Phi Gamma College journalism society will sponsor Elsa Magnus, former editor of the Golden Gater, and Max R. Williamson, present editor, who will discuss the news story at 12:10 today in room 117.
